Mr. Milne also began making up his report on hin investigation, which when completed will be submitted to City Works Commissioner White. Mr. Milne told an "Evening World" reporter that he was about to begin a thorough investigation of every factory in the city, and where it is found that the Department has been defrauded out of water rates, the Corporation Counsel will be requested to bring suits to recover the amounts due.

It is believed by the Water Purveyor that fully $10.00 or $15,000 is due the city from the politicians who own the Citizens' Electric Light Company. The plant is practically owned by Hugh McLaughlin, nephew of Boss McLaughlin, is practically owned by Hugh McLaughlin, nephew of Boss McLaughlin, both Delmar and ex-chief of the Fire Department Thomas F. Searing, over his saloon at 75 Berry treet, were entered, and property valued at $100 taken. One article of jewelry which Mr. Purbs lost was a diamond pin of peculiar design. Julia, the twenty-year-old daughter of the saloon-keeper, went to a review of the Forty-seventh Regiment last Monday with Purbs, who is a private in Company F. She noticed that he wore a scarf-pin much like that which her father had lost, and on her complaint a detective went to the house of the young man and placed him under arrest.

Purbs handed over the pin, which was identified by Searing. The prisoner claimed he was innocent, however, and stoutly asserted that he had bought the pin from a Grand street peddler.

Miss Searing and Purbs are both employed in a crinoline factory on North Ninth street, and the young man is given a very good reputation by all who know him.

This closed the evidence in rebuttal, and Lawyer Fromme began summing up for the defenss. His argument was a bitter arraignment of the Petiti family, and mother and daughter shifted nervously throughout. He referred to Miss Petiti as a self-confessed perjurer, and characterized her evidence throughout as a tissue of falsehoods, calling to mind overal instances where she had been cornered. He roundly scored Miss Hasbrouck and "Ruby" Cannes, referring to Le latter as something in the form of a man. Mr. Frömme called to mind the fact that it was an slopement, and said: "This is a characteristic of the family and is in their blood, The father and mather eloped, why not the daughter."
